In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me." The lilies of the earth are the more beautiful because we see them rising out of dark Calvary. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. As the crystal purity of the lily lifts from the muck and the mud of a wayside pond, so the divine glory of the Easter lily comes to birth out of the tragic sorrow of Friday's crucifixion.

The Cross speaks of the muck and mire of human sin and sordidness. The lily tells of divine love that died for us, of the grace that saves us. Even the Cross takes on a radiant beauty when it is seen through the fragrant glory of the Easter lily. Dark Friday becomes Good Friday with its revealing of heavenly Love. Worship then the Redeeming God who has brought life and immortality to us. Then the Easter lily will symbolize our everlasting life.
